CBC  Radio-Canada

WE ARE HIRING

Announcer/Operator

in Thompson, Manitoba

What it's like working at CBC/Radio-Canada

This is an amazing opportunity at CBC Manitoba. This is your chance to join our team as our next great Announcer/Operator based in Thompson, Manitoba. If you are passionate about everything that makes Northern Manitoba what it is -- its people and its neighbourhoods, its culture and its sports, its politics and its business -- then this might be the perfect job for you.

What You Need to Bring:

This is a development opportunity. Here are some of the traits we're looking for you to have (or that you can convince us that you've got deep down inside of you and we can develop):

- you are passionate about your community.
- have a deep understanding of Thompson and the North.
- you have a deep knowledge of the Indigenous and/or a visible minority community in Thompson.
- you're a creative storyteller.
- have a warm and confident style with people.
- a strong interviewer in a live format.
- you're a critical thinker.
- ability to work independently.

Who Should Apply

Applications from across Canada are welcome, but you're going to have to make a case for why you are passionate about Thompson. A diverse workforce is important to us, so we encourage Indigenous people, women, members of visible minorities and people living with disabilities to apply.

Please include a link in your application letting us know what you sound like. It could be an interview you have done, or tell us your favourite story. Give us a sense of what you sound like and how you are when you talk to people.

Please note that this is a one year, full time contract.
