This form is used to gather information of where our ID Camps will be held and the number of youth we can expect to try-out. All other required information will be gathered at a later date. Athletes can only participate in one sport at the NAIG but can try-out for more than one at our sport ID camps. Based on the applications we receive, there will be a minimum of two ID camps per sport in each of our Indigenous Regions (Conne River, West Coast of NL and Labrador) from July 2018 to June 2019. Final selection camps will take place in July 2019 by invitation only and successful candidates and sports they were selected for will be named by July 31, 2019. Athletes could be responsible for up to $1,300 or as low as $0 to participate at the 2020 NAIG for Team Indigenous NL dependant on financial support received from sources such as Aboriginal Governments, First Nation Councils and/or corporate sponsorship etc. If youth can prove Indigenous ancestry but are not a recognized member of any of the Indigenous Nations/Governments, they may still participate but will be responsible for the required amount of up to $1,300 per athlete, through personal fund raising or corporate sponsorship if they make our teams
