

Call for Artists and Craftspeople – Online Indigenous Art & Craft Auction

Experience Qalipu is excited to announce an online auction of Indigenous art and craft. Experience Qalipu will create a Facebook Group where artists and craftspeople can post their items for auction. Individual artists will set a starting bid, bid increment and shipping cost. All the transactions will happen directly between the artist/craftsperson and the buyer. 100% of the money raised goes directly back to the artist/craftsperson.

This will be a live Facebook auction that will run for 3 days starting on November 6, 2020 at 12:00pm and ending on November 8, 2020 at 5:59pm. All artists and craftspeople must have their items posted to the group before the start of the event. There will be a document explaining how to post your items at a later date.

Rules:

1. Artists/craftspeople must be either a member of Qalipu First Nation OR self-identify as Indigenous
2. Artists/craftspeople must post their own products only. If you are posting work on behalf of a family member, the post must state who the item was made by.
3. Artists/craftspeople are responsible for setting the auction starting price, bid increments, shipping information, payment information (e-transfer, PayPal, etc)
4. Each artist/craftsperson can post a maximum of 15 items to the group
5. Artist/craftsperson is responsible for accepting payment from auction item winner
6. Artist/craftsperson is responsible for coordinating the shipping or local pick up with the auction item winner while practicing physical distancing
7. All products must be completed before the auction starts
8. Actual photo of the work must be uploaded to the auction (1 item per photo)
9. Experience Qalipu will create the one-time online auction Facebook group
10. Experience Qalipu will announce the winners of each item by commenting on each photo
11. Experience Qalipu will not profit or accept any monies for the auction

Disclaimer:

Experience Qalipu will not handle any money in this event and we cannot guarantee the sale of any or all items. Experience Qalipu is simply creating the platform for the event and will promote the event on social media.
