

Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band Announces Winner of Ticket Draw

Sharon LaSaga, Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band Employee and DJ Callahan, owner of Central Service pictured above with the donated ski-doo jacket.

Since its formation in 2011, the Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band arranges fundraisers to raise money for a selected Charity of Choice as a way to give back to the community. For 2013 – 2014, two charities have been selected as Charities of Choice. Staff of the Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band has chosen the Canadian Diabetes Association as its Charity of Choice and the Band Council has chosen the ALS Society.

A ski-doo jacket was donated by DJ Callahan, owner of Central Service in St. George's to assist Staff with their fundraising efforts. Tickets were sold on the jacket from September until December for $2.00 each or 3 tickets for $5.00. This fundraiser was a big success, raising $731.00 for the Canadian Diabetes Association.

The jacket was drawn for on December 18th at the Qalipu office in St. George's and the lucky winner is... Ryan Burton. Congratulations Ryan.

The Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band would like to thank everyone who supported this fundraising event and a special thank you to DJ Callahan for the generous donation. The Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band looks forward to continuing their fundraising efforts for the Canadian Diabetes Association and the ALS Society. These fundraising efforts would not be possible without our supporters so again, a big thank you to all who support our fundraising events.
