

Maritime Link Workplace Training Initiative

Description: The Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band will deliver training modules in core safety and workplace skills which will benefit our members and provide them with the skills to contribute to employment opportunities such as with the Nova Scotia Power Maritime Link (NSPML). This project will involve partners from EmeraNL and the IBEW 1620. The Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band is seeking 18 members; both male and female, to undergo a series of training modules and project overview to better prepare them for employment opportunities with the NSPML Project. This training initiative will increase their opportunity to be placed on site during this project.

Location: St. George's, NL

Qualifications: Candidates must be actively seeking employment and is willing and able to work. This training initiative will have a particular emphasis on gender diversity and we aim to attract both aboriginal men and women into this program.

Apply: This training initiative is over the course of two weeks and is anticipated to begin in early March. If you are interested in this opportunity, please apply with application, resume and covering letter to:
