

Fabrication Quality Coordinator

Owen Sound, ON

Makwa-Cahill are working together to provide our nuclear and energy clients and partners a socially balanced, local, qualified, cost-effective and technically superior fabrication and maintenance solution made in Ontario. Makwa-Cahill are currently recruiting for a Fabrication Quality Coordinator to support ongoing projects at our location in Owen Sound, Ontario.

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate kick-off meetings
- Prepare job initiation sheets
- Review reports, certifications, and other documents for accuracy and add them to the Manufacturing Record Books
- Maintain project SDR's (Supplier Documentation Registers) when required
- Input required information into Weld Coordinator and weld mapping
- Track KPI's as assigned
- Receive project materials
- Performs project coordination activities as required. Including but not limited to ordering materials, prioritizing work, creating tags, and arranging shipping

Qualifications:

- Minimum CWB Level 1 Certification Required
- A minimum of 2 years of coordination experience relating to the fabrication sectors
- Proficient with reading drawings and specifications
- Proficient in Microsoft Office programs as well as Weld Coordinator
- Attention to detail and organization is fundamental. • Must be able to communicate effectively with management, tradespersons and suppliers

Cahill is an equal opportunity organization. While we thank all applicants for their interest, only those under consideration will be contacted.

We strive to ensure that our application process is free of any barriers, however, we respect that there may still be limitations. If you encounter any accessibility barriers or require a specific accommodation, please reach out to our Human Resources team.

Apply at <https://login.hrwise.com/hr/recruitment/job/0dd3b867aebc07ce2d93e97c5cd4c605/21834>