

Turtle Island Childcare
Early Childhood Educator
Full-time and Part-time Vacancies

Summary

The St. John's Native Friendship Centre is a community-based, non-profit, registered charity. Set in the capital city of Newfoundland and Labrador, it serves the urban Aboriginal population. The Centre also provides a wide range of programs and services open to all people regardless of heritage. The Turtle Island Childcare Centre is the newest service and program operated by the SJNFC. Located on Elizabeth Avenue our childcare Centre has a preschool room (3-5) and school age room (5-12) and is licensed for 31 children.

Qualifications

Education, Qualifications and Certifications

- Early Childhood Education Level 1 or higher with preschool and/or school age certification
- Current First Aid and CPR Certificate
- Child Protection Check
- Criminal Record Check with Vulnerable Sector Check
- Knowledge of:
 - Child development theories and practices
 - Provincial legislation, policies, and standards as related to ECE
 - An understanding of the Aboriginal Cultures, histories, and traditions in Newfoundland and Labrador and ability to speak Inuktitut, Innu-Aimun, and/or Mi'kmaq would be an asset

What we offer

- Competitive salary
- Benefits (Health, dental, and gym membership discounts)
- Paid sick days and snow days
- Vacation time
- Opportunities for professional development

Please drop off your cover letter and resume detailing qualifications to: The St. John's Native Friendship Centre C/o Thea Cammie
716 Water Street St. John's, NL A1E 1C1 or email it to tcammie@sjnfc.com

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.