

Medical Transportation Fact Sheet and Useful Links

- All Qalipu members living in Atlantic Canada will find support, pre-approvals, and claims processing for their medical transportation benefit through our Qalipu offices.
- To ask questions about this benefit, or to receive pre-approval for your medical transportation requirement, call 709-634-0996 to speak to a NIHB Support Specialist.
- All Medical Transportation Benefit Claims must be sent to the Corner Brook office at the following address:
 - NIHB Medical Transportation Program
3 Church Street
Corner Brook, NL
A2H 2Z4
- If you are required to travel beyond the nearest health facility, then medical justification will be required. Include documentation from your health care provider with your reimbursement form that explains why you were required to travel beyond the nearest health facility.
- Ensure you have signed and completed all necessary sections, and included all necessary documents, or your claim will be returned.
- Original receipts are required. Please maintain a copy for your records.
- You must sign up for Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) to receive your claim. Even if you have already provided the essential banking information to Health Canada, you will still need to sign up for EFT with Qalipu. Please complete the Electronic Funds Transfer Form (see link below) and mail it to the address above. Alternatively, you can email your EFT form by calling 709-634-0996 to discuss email options with a Support Specialist.
- You have one year from the date the service(s) was provided to apply for reimbursement
- Remember to include your Qalipu Band registration (or identification) number. Parents can provide their identification number for children under 12 months of age who have not yet been registered.
- If you have applied for status for children over the age of 12 months, you have not yet received their card, and you and/or your spouse are registered members, please contact 709-634-0996 to discuss eligibility for the NIHB Medical Transportation benefit.
